

María, Lupe and Maura are three Latina immigrants struggling to survive in Los Angeles sweatshops. But one day, determined to win basic labor protections, they embark on a three-year odyssey that will transform their lives forever. Compelling, humorous, deeply human, Made in L.A. is a story about immigration, the power of unity, and the courage it takes to find your voice.

• In English and Spanish with bilingual subtitles •

"An excellent documentary... about basic human dignity."

-THE NEW YORK TIMES

"A rousing true story of solidarity, perseverance and triumph."

-VARIETY

"A valuable and moving film – entertaining as well... precious."

-LOS ANGELES TIMES

Made in L.A. screening

Don't miss this unique opportunity to watch the film everyone's talking about!

Tuesday, September 6th, 2011

7:30 to 9:00

University of Houston

University Center –North Patio

We will also welcome Houston Interfaith Worker Justice who will discuss the efforts to bring about fair labor practices in Houston.

Sponsored by: Houston Rescue and Restore Coalition and the Women's Resource Center of the University of Houston

For more information about the film and to view the trailer:

www.madeinla.com